GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS SMITH TO INTERAGENCY COUNCIL FOR COORDINATING HOMELESS PROGRAMS

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Sillar Greene Smith of Raleigh to the North Carolina Interagency Council for Coordinating Homeless Programs.

Smith is the state coordinator for compensatory education and special populations for the North Carolina Community College System office. She graduated from Shaw University with a Bachelor's degree in speech pathology and received her Masters degree in speech pathology from the University of the District of Columbia.

The council advises the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services on issues related to problems of persons who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless, identifies and secures available resources and recommends policy initiatives in carrying out programs to meet the needs of the homeless. There are 29 members on the council, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
